Introduction to the Liturgy

Today the Church celebrates the first of three scrutinies with the Elect and their communities. The scriptures are chosen explicitly to help the Elect as they undergo their final preparations for the Easter sacraments. The baptized too can scrutinize their own lives today, following the example of the Elect in allowing our Lord to uncover and heal all that is weak and sinful in the way we live.

Fr. Paul

Question of the Week

How will I personally share the journey of our catechumens to the waters of Baptism? Or, if our community has no catechumens, how will I share with one other person my discovery of Christ as “Savior of the world”?

Applications are in the rear of the church for the following scholarships. The youth of the parish and their parents are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities.

1. St. Joseph Parish Scholarship. Available to youth of parish who are attending Catholic grade school or high school.
2. Knights of Peter Claver and Ladies Auxiliary will present multiple scholarships to Catholic students who attend grade school, high school or who plan to attend college.
3. The Monday Club will award scholarships to worthy students who plan to attend college in the fall of 2017.

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

ST. JOSEPH'S PARISH LIFE AND NEWS

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

The journey of faith is a process that takes time. Please contact the pastor about taking steps leading to initiation as a Catholic Christian. If you know someone who needs special invitation, please inform the pastor. The whole church is built up when an adult embraces the faith. We need to embrace those called by Christ.

In John's gospel this week we are presented with the account of the Samaritan woman at the well. From this one encounter with Christ this woman became a believer. She not only became a believer herself she also brought many to Christ because of her words about this experience. As Catholics we encounter Christ at every Mass and should be moved to spread this experience to others. When was the last time you spoke to someone about your experience with the Lord? In this age, this joyful task is wrought with stress and in many cases responded with anger or ridicule. This should not prevent us from spreading this truth and living our faith. This week I encourage you to speak about your experience with Christ to your family at the dinner table. Take five minutes and go around the table to tell each other about one joyful or meaningful experience you had. The more you speak of Christ the easier it becomes, and the more you live your faith, the more experiences you will have to draw upon.

Vocations 3rd Sunday of Lent

Even though Moses was following the Lord's command, the people grumbled against him. Every vocation carries the same risk; following the Lord – as a committed married person, single person, priest or religious – is not always popular. At the same time, the Lord blesses those who hear His call and follow. Is God calling you to serve the Church through a vocation of religious ministry? Let's talk. Call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113; vocations@cdow.org).

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

If you don't do regular maintenance on your car, it may start spluttering and clanking. If your spouse is making noises (complaining, nagging etc.), maybe it's time to look under the hood. You may find that neglect is the culprit. Perhaps you haven't listened closely to what your beloved needs. Maybe work or the kids have become a priority. Ask.

PARENTING POINTERS

"The people grumbled against Moses" (Ex 17: 3) It's normal in any family to grumble occasionally. Parents grumble about their kids and vice-versa. But what happens after the grumbling? Model apologizing for your child. "I'm sorry. I'll try to do better." who is hard to love.
