Introduction to the Liturgy

Each of us has been baptized into the mystery of the Holy Spirit. We invoke the Holy Trinity every time we sign ourselves with the cross. So today we pause to acknowledge this mystery and to give thanks for the God of life who sent the Son and the Holy Spirit for our salvation.

May our Christian life together reflect the love among Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Fr. Paul

THROUGHOUT THE DIOCESE

On Pentecost Sunday we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit, a moment that should certainly remind us of our Confirmation. On this day we also celebrate the birth of the Church. Through the coming of the Holy Spirit our Church is established and the ministry to spread his good news begins. The Holy Spirit has blessed each one of us with gifts, gifts that we can utilize to benefit His ministry. This week reflect, and pray, on your gifts and contemplate if you are utilizing them to the fullest. When we recognize and utilize the gifts that have been bestowed upon us great things can occur. What gift has the Lord given you? Are you utilizing it to the fullest? Never forget that we are all blessed with gifts of the Holy Spirit, and like any gift we should utilize it.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Marriage is often made up of two "stiff-necked people." (Exodus 34-9) What are you most stubborn about in your relationship? It's natural to want to get your way. However, sometimes it's better to give way as a sign of love.

PARENTING POINTERS

We sacrifice our time, money, and ego for those we love. Which of these is easiest and hardest for you to sacrifice for your own child?

Family Program – An Immigrant's Journey

Wilmington, DE – Between 1892 and 1954 twelve million immigrants entered the U.S. through Ellis Island alone. Today, descendants of those immigrants account for almost half of the population of the U.S.

On Saturday, June 17, 2017 from 1:00-3:00 pm, the Delaware History Museum invites families to envision the lives of 19th-century immigrants. The family program, An Immigrant's Journey, asks guests to contemplate what it must have been like for immigrants to leave their homes and make a long journey by sea to a new country where the language and customs were new.

Three hands-on stations allow participants to consider what 19th-century immigrants would pack in a bag for a long voyage and to identify everyday objects that would help a newcomer to better understand American culture versus objects that represent Old World customs and traditions.

Participants are welcome to tour Delaware: One State, Many Stories, a comprehensive exhibition presented in a complementary dual format. Discover Delaware introduces a general overview of the state's history from the 1600s to the present. Journey to Freedom features the history of African Americans from the first known African brought to Delaware by the Swedes in the 1600s called "Black Anthony," to Delaware Poets Laureate, brothers Nnamdi Chukwuocha and Al Mills.

Program fee is included with museum admission.

Adults $6.00; Seniors (65+)/Military/Student (with i.d.) $5.00; Children (3-18) $4.00

Trinity Sunday, officially called "The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity," is one of the few celebrations of the Christian Year that commemorates a reality and doctrine rather than a person or event. On Trinity

Sunday, Christians remember and honor the eternal God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Trinity Sunday is celebrated the Sunday after Pentecost, and lasts only one day, which is symbolic of the unity of the Trinity. Eastern Churches have no tradition of Trinity Sunday, arguing that they celebrate the Trinity every Sunday. Westerners also commemorate the Trinity at every Eucharist, although they set aside a special feast day for the purpose as well.
