Introduction to the Liturgy

As we move toward the conclusion of the church year, our liturgies make a make a decisive shift. Our readings focus more on the end-times, and we set aside this month of November as a time to remember our beloved dead. As we gather today to contemplate these things, let us pray that by our attitudes and actions, we will eagerly welcome the arrival of the Lord in our everyday lives and wisely prepare for his coming at the end of time.

NATIVE AMERICAN NATIVITY

Following the Nativity, we will have a brief informational meeting, in the Conference Room, for anyone who is interested in becoming a member of the newly-forming St. Joseph Kateri Circle.

ALL are welcome!

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

Jesus' parable this week emphasizes that one must be prepared. We may not know the day or the hour of His return, but we should be ready for it at all times. Imagine all the preparation needed before you go on a vacation. Reservations need to be made, bags packed, and finances set aside. Are you making the same effort in preparing to meet Jesus? What must you do in order to be ready? Are you preparing yourself now, or do you find yourself procrastinating? Heed the warning this parable provides, do not wait any longer, and prepare yourself now. Christ is waiting to receive each of us with open arms.

Vocations

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's first reading reminds us that wisdom "is readily perceived by those who love her and found by those who seek her." God's wisdom for us includes our individual vocation, that unique plan God has for each of us to participate in His work. Like wisdom, God's call is "readily perceived" and "found" by those who put time and effort into discerning it. What steps are you taking to discern your vocation? Call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

PARENTING POINTERS

Even with natural talent, it takes work to develop it. Help your child identify one talent this week, and one way they can improve it. Often this includes the "P" word - Practice. (Mt 25: 14-30)

The First State at the Front: WWI and the Road to Victorious Peace

New Exhibition Opens November 17

Wilmington, DE – The Delaware Historical Society will open a new exhibition on November 17, 2017, titled The First State at the Front: WWI and the Road to Victorious Peace. The exhibition will run through 2018. Commemorating the centennial of the U.S. entry into World War I, the exhibition explores the experiences and sacrifices of Delawareans at war and on the home front, featuring many of the Delaware Historical Society’s rich collections, including a soldier’s muddy boots and garrison cap, a flag from a Gold Star family, letters to loved ones, photographs, scrapbooks, victory medals, and a wealth of wartime propaganda posters. One of the highlights of the exhibition is an invitation to a welcome home event in Wilmington for returning soldiers, celebrating the “victorious peace” that inspired the exhibition’s title.

Visitors will be transported to 1917 as they explore differing attitudes towards the United States’ entry into World War I, the experience of African American soldiers, and the many organizations and activities at home that supported the war effort abroad. Individually, these items tell fascinating stories about Delawareans living through a war that awakened them to a new global reality. Together, they paint a broader picture that speaks to the very human cost of war.

Hours: Wednesday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Admission: Adults $6.00; Seniors (65+)/Military/Student(with i.d.) $5.00; Children (3-18) $4.00
