Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

The first reading is Isaiah's poetic plea to God to remain with his people and continue to bless them despite their worldliness and their propensity toward sin. In the second reading, Saint Paul reminds the Corinthians that God is faithful, and will continue to sustain them until the day of salvation. The Gospel rouses us from worldly sleep with the exhortation to Watch, for we do not know the day or the hour when the Lord will call upon us.

Fr. Paul

NATIVE AMERICAN NATIVITY

On Sunday, December 10, we invite everyone to enjoy the Native American Nativity presented in the Church Hall by Members of the Journey with the Bear Kateri Circle.

Following the Nativity, we will have a brief informational meeting, in the Conference Room, for anyone who is interested in becoming a member of the newly-forming St. Joseph Kateri Circle.

ALL are welcome!

Stay Awake and watch for the Lord.

The ancient spiritual tradition of memento mori is one of calling to mind our own eventual death in order to focus on eternity and live a better life. How easy it is to be lulled into the sleep of the world and to forget that there is a limit to our earthly time. Advent is a time to prepare ourselves for Christ's return in glory. When the Lord comes, will he find us awake?

Christmas Flowers

Consider honoring a family member, friend or loved one by contributing toward the 2017 Christmas Flower fund. This is a very nice way to remember loved ones and to support the church. Envelopes are in the pews and at the back of the church.

A Soulful Christmas

Our very own Brenda Burns and Mary Mirabeau along with Ann Marie Witkowski from the Gospel Choir are among the choir members that will sing at this year's Soulful Christmas event. Congratulations!

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

Sunday Morning Fellowship

We've been blessed to have the coffee and pastries donated on each Sunday of the month as indicated below.

- ◆ 1st Sunday - Ladies Sodality
- ◆ 2nd Sunday - Knights of Peter Claver and Ladies Auxiliary
- ◆ 3rd Sunday - Loretta & Leonard Young

Share these with others in the household and keep an Advent journal noting each "God moment" of the day.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

A trip down Memory Lane -the Honeymoon. Not everyone takes a honeymoon after their wedding but whether you did or not, savor the early days of your marriage. What made them special? What did you learn about each other?

PARENTING POINTERS

With Christmas approaching this is a good time to talk with your child about selecting one or several toys to pass on to other children. It's consistent with the "one in - one out" principle for keeping a simple home. It doesn't have to be a favorite toy, but it should be something they think will bring joy to another.

Hope will never fail to satisfy our deepest need!

Vocations

First Sunday of Advent

All Christians are called to love the Lord with all their hearts, souls and minds, and to love their neighbor as themselves. Some are called to express that love in lives of service to God's people as priests, deacons, religious sisters or religious brothers. Are you being called to live out your life in one of these vocations? If you think so, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!
