Introduction to the Liturgy
 Every now and then our Sunday celebration reminds us more than usual of God's lavish and generous love. Today the Gospel presents the parable of the generous landowner and the workers in the vineyard, with the latecomers getting paid as much as those who worked all day. The message is that it's simply never too late to experience God's mercy and forgiveness. Today let us pray in gratitude for God who's generosity is so compelling.
 Fr. Paul

Congratulations to LaVon Robinson who will receive the Diocesan Merit Award from Bishop Malooly on Sunday, October 8, 2017, 3:00 pm at St. Joseph's in Middletown. LaVon works tirelessly for the parish with years of dedication to our children. She is a CCD instructor, works at the front desk and she spreads her love of God throughout the Wilmington community. Mark your calendars and help LaVon celebrate this most worthy recognition.

CCD - Educating and Evangelism

CCD takes place every Sunday following mass in the parish center. CCD class is not only for preparing your child to receive a Sacrament, the instructors have been working very hard to develop a plan to introduce a plan where they can deliver liturgical education, assist the parents to use this information to strengthen their moral foundation in the church and their community and to understand more deeply the effectiveness of prayer. All children within this parish are being asked to participate as they are our future.

We are still looking for a Mentor/Instructor for St. Joseph's Leaders of Tomorrow for those youth 14 to 18 of age. Please consider being a volunteer for our teens.

Dear Friends,

Today's second collection is taken in support of the diocesan tuition assistance program. Monies raised through this collection coupled with the diocese's tuition assistance endowment provides financial assistance to hundreds of deserving families who seek a Catholic education for their children but who cannot afford the full cost of tuition. If you are not prepared to contribute today, you may drop your contribution off at the parish office or place it in next week's collection basket. For further information, visit the diocesan website at www.cdow.org/sharespirit.html.

Sincerely,
Fr. Paul

Question of the Week
 How will I stop acting like a self-appointed judge of "latecomers" and begin serving as a member of God's "welcome wagon"? After all, God has welcomed even me.

TRIP TO THE BATHROOM

Little people sometimes find it necessary to make a bathroom visit during mass to relieve boredom if nothing else. Fellowship hall and the bathrooms are unsupervised and accessible to outsiders. For the safety of our little ones, their grown-up should accompany them when they take a break. Nothing has happened and we want to be sure it doesn't.

Parking Lot

During the weekdays, the parking spaces are not available. In addition, please do not park in the pastors' or volunteer parking slots. These slots are available on Sunday, but never during the weekday. If you have a special request, please call the office. Thank you.

This week, Jesus relays to us the parable of the workers in the vineyard. This parable emphasizes God's grace and generosity. God loves all his children and does not want any of them to miss out on this love. He does not limit the time that one has to come to Him and does not give up on anyone, always leaving the opportunity for them to come to Him. What are you doing to show others this abundant love, and provide them an opportunity to experience it? When was the last time you invited someone to attend Mass with you? Even just inviting someone to lunch, or for a walk in the park, can give him or her an opportunity to experience God's love through you.

Vocations

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's first reading, the Lord reminds us through the prophet Isaiah "my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways." One of the hallmarks of Christian growth is realizing that God's plan for me might be different from what I'd like to choose as a career. Sorting it all out involves discernment, and that's never easy to do by oneself. If you think God might be calling you to priesthood, diaconate or religious life, and if you'd like some help as you seek clarity, call or write Father Norm Carroll, Diocesan Director of Priestly and Religious Vocations (302-573-3113 or vocations@cdow.org). Be sure to visit our website: www.cdow.org/vocations!

Join the Bishop at the "Blue Mass"

Bishop Malooly invited you to the 2017 Diocese of Wilmington "Blue Mass" on Friday, October 6 at 11:00 a.m. at Saint Elizabeth Church, 809 South Broom Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The "Blue Mass" honors the local, county, state, and federal law enforcement, fire, emergency medical, and military personnel who live and work in Delaware and on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Those currently serving, the retired, and their families are invited to attend

PARENTING POINTERS

Monday (September 25) is National Eat Dinner Together Day. Maybe you always eat dinner together. If not, make a special effort to eat together on this day. Tell stories of your day. What was the high? What was the low?

Rachel's Vineyard Catholic Retreat for post-abortion healing will be held at the Franciscan retreat house, Wilmington, DE October 6-8. The retreat weekend is a beautiful opportunity for any person who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of abortion to heal. For more information contact Nan Freeman at 302-528-8313 or visit rachelsvineyard.org.

Annual Red Mass

The annual Red Mass will be celebrated on Monday, October 2, at 6:00 p.m. at St. Joseph on the Brandywine Church. This is the 30th Annual Celebration of the Red Mass, and the homilist will be Fr. Robert Kennedy, who was homilist for the first diocesan Red Mass. Dating back to the Middle Ages, the Red Mass is celebrated annually for judges, lawyers, law professors and students, and government officials. The Mass invokes the gifts of the Holy Spirit for those who seek justice and serve in its administration.

The Via Crucis

We cordially invite you to be a part of a special weekly Lenten presentation.

The Via Crucis (The Way of the Cross) was begun by Christ's first followers. Few words are spoken; presented in the centuries-old tradition of the Church to encourage the pious meditation of its people. You can be a part of this tradition; no experience is necessary to participate. Your participation can be credited towards community service or other scholastic requirements. More importantly, however, you become a part of something sacred and special.

All grade-school age to college-age boys and girls are welcome. Bring along your friends and relatives as well!

We also have a choir that facilitates this moving prayer. They would also welcome your participation.
